

Louisiana Good Roads and Transportation Association

Contact: Mark Lambert
Lambert Media
225-937-8113
lambertmedia@eatel.net

Jan. 2, 2012

News Release

Officers, directors elected for Good Roads group

BATON ROUGE, La. – Kenneth Perret, former assistant secretary for DOTD and a former administrator with the Federal Highway Administration, has been re-elected as president of the non-profit Louisiana Good Roads and Transportation Association.

Also elected as officers for 2012 were Senior Vice President David Huval, of Huval & Associates; Vice President Johnny Bradberry, former DOTD secretary; and Secretary/Treasurer Ken Naquin, CEO of Louisiana Associated General Contractors.

New directors elected for 2012 include Joseph Accardo, executive director of the Ports Association of Louisiana; Gen. John Basilica of HNTB; and William B. Conway of Modjeski and Masters. W.P. Wray, Jr., was named as director emeritus.

Directors who were re-elected include Robert Canfield, Jan L. Evans, Courtney Fenet, Al Flettrich, Steve Hackworth, Shelby P. LaSalle, Jr., Wayne Marchand, Roger Melancon, Daniel E. Mobley, Dr. Kam Movassaghi, Gordon Nelson, Bob Schmidt, William Sussmann, Willie T. Taylor, Bill Temple, Neil Wagoner, Gard Wayt and Don Weathers.

Louisiana Good Roads and Transportation Association is a statewide, non-profit organization dedicated to fostering and promoting a program of planning, design, construction and maintenance of an adequate transportation system, sufficiently financed, which will conveniently and safely serve the transportation needs of the people of Louisiana.